ONEvelope®

ONEvelope® is a self-sealing, z-fold mailer designed for printing checks, invoices and statements, while eliminating the need for an envelope. All printing is done on one side of the mailer. Simply print, fold, seal, and mail. No additional equipment is required. Heat resistant ONEvelope® can be used with both inkjet and laser printers. It is designed to be compatible with QuickBooks® when used with a software plugin. For all other software packages, please check with your software supplier for compatibility. The self-sealing closure offers a permanent, tamper evident seal. Security tinted areas prevent the viewing of contents when folded.
